The Effect of Raising Connecticut's Minimum Wage

House Bill No. 5388 proposes to raise the state minimum hourly wage from $10.10 to $12 on Jan. 1, 2019; from $12 to $13.50 on Jan. 1, 2020; and from $13.50 to $15 on Jan. 1, 2021. Once the minimum wage reaches $15 in 2021, the bill indexes any future increases to annual increases in the consumer price index. To be clear, we are not opposed to a steady increase in the minimum wage, we are opposed to a rapid one. The money to pay for the increase costs in higher wages must come from somewhere, and it is ultimately the consumer that pays for all increases in the cost of operating a business. The question is: Can we afford it? The graph below shows our estimates of what this would do to our prices at The Vanilla Bean Cafe in the same time frame. See our full article at www.GreenValleyHospitality.com/Min-Wage.pdf or pick up a copy at any of our restaurants.

Friday - 5- Open Mic

Hosts - Faith Montaperto & Peter Lehndorff - Feature - Kyle Rictor - has been active in the studio writing, performing and producing records for artists like TwiceYoung, Kye Kye and For King and Country, the last of which earning him a Grammy.

Saturday - 6 - Jim Henry

It's hard to know where to start when describing Jim Henry. He does a lot of things and he does them well.

As a sideman, on a variety of electric or acoustic guitars, or on mandolin or dobro, Jim can render emotional sensitivity in one moment then tear into a rock or country solo with such fire it's hard to catch your breath. He is a master of adding whatever is needed at any musical moment. At center stage, whether as a solo artist or leading a band, Jim delivers his finely crafted original songs with a smooth, rich baritone voice and engaging story telling. He has produced, recorded, played and traveled the world with Mary Chapin Carpenter, Paula Cole, Shawn Colvin, Alison Krauss, The Nitty Gritty Dirt Band, Los Lobos, Asleep at the Wheel, Gillian Welch and Dave Rawlings, The Weepies, Deb Talan, Eliza Gilkyson, Tracy Grammer, Susan Werner, The Boxcar Lilies...the list goes on and on. At home on a festival stage and the intimate setting of a house concert, live and in the studio, playing acoustic or electric, solo or with a band supporting another musicians, the sheer versatility of this skillful musician can be hard to fully appreciate...until you hear him play. Ruby Henry opens the show.

Saturday - 13 - Sarah McQuaid

With the release of her new album, the Madrid-born, Chicago-raised, Cornwall-based singer/songwriter has expanded her battery of instruments to include piano, electric guitar and drum, and it's drawn critical raves internationally: Dutch music magazine Heaven hailed it as "an early contender for folk album of 2018," the UK's fRoots said it was "a collection to savour" and the USA's PopMatters called it "a gateway into a true innovator's soul." Recently honoured with a Lifetime Achievement Award by the Ards International Guitar Festival in Northern Ireland, Sarah's also drawn critical praise for her voice (which has been variously likened to malt whiskey and melted chocolate) and her engaging rapport with audiences.

Saturday - 20 - Antje Duvekot

Antje Duvekot has solidified her reputation as one of Boston's top singer songwriters with "Big Dream Boulevard" her debut studio release and "the Near Demise of the Highwire Dancer" and "New Siberia" her follow-up albums. The debut CD was produced by Seamus Egan, founder of the Irish super group, SOLAS and the project was released on songwriter Ellis Paul's label and quickly attracted international attention for Antje. It was voted "#1 Folk Release of 2006" by the Boston Globe and was named to the "Top10 Releases of the Year" by National Public Radio's, Folk Alley. Her follow up albums "the Near Demise of the Highwire Dancer" and "New Siberia" were produced by Richard Shindell and alongside with Richard feature other "folk royalty" such as John Gorka, Lucy Kaplancky and Mark Erelli.

Saturday - 27 - 2 Ravens

Lui Collins & Max Cohen are part of a group called 3 Ravens. Because only Lui and Max will be with us this evening, they are going by the name of 2 Ravens. Lui Collins earned international acclaim for her Philo and Green Linnet recordings and her intimate concerts. These days, along with creating playful 4-string arrangements of some favorite original songs, Lui has been exploring the fabulous jazz chords in old American standards and bossa nova on tenor ukulele. "Incomparable." - Sing Out! Magazine. Max Cohen's natural humility hides an amazing talent. An accomplished guitarist, Max balances tremendous sensitivity with driving rhythmic power. His partnership with poet Jane Yolen, Lui, and Donna, particularly showcases his guitar as he weaves poems and tunes together seamlessly. While telling stories that draw from life and fantasy, 2 Ravens guide you on vocal and instrumental journeys that often end with the audience singing along to beloved standards. Wanda Adams Fischer of WAMC-FM's Hudson Valley Sampler called their music "Just gorgeous!" Emerald Rae opens the show.

About... Sing:

Quiet Corner Song Swap

3rd Friday of each Month @ 7:00 pm

After the death of Pete Seeger in 2014, a small group of his admirers joined together to celebrate his life with a sing-along concert at the Hampton Grange. The event was a huge success and gave birth to SING:The Quiet Corner Song Swap. There is no charge and lyrics are available for most songs. They frequently use the folk "hymnal", Rise Up Singing and its sequel, Rise Again for song lyrics. Participants are encouraged to lead their favorite songs or suggest them to the song leaders of the evening. Bring your voices, your instruments and your ears. This is specifically a night for singing, so please, no fiddle tunes or songs without a place to join in.

Friday - 2 - Open Mic

Hosts - Faith Montaperto & Peter Lehndorff - Feature - Prateek Poddar - "Not just any guy with a guitar... Prateek's honest, elegant songcraft and luminous voice capture the ear and heart immediately." - The Boston Globe

Saturday - 3 - Don White

There is no one-word description for what Don White does. He has survived and thrived for more than twenty years, bringing his audiences to laughter and tears in his live performances, studio recordings, and on the printed page. He is a storyteller-comedian-author-troubadour-folk singer-songwriter. He is a walking challenge to the phrase "file under." Best to just sort him under "Don White." Equal parts comedian, storyteller and songwriter Mr. White's performances have earned him a dedicated following for over twenty years. "White is a riot on stage, a bona fide crowd pleaser. One of the most popular acts on the circuit. He plays an audience the way Leo Kottke plays a 12-string." - The Boston Globe. "...there is an honesty and self-deprecating wit in his material that is an immediate tonic." - The Boston Herald

Saturday - 10 - Mark Mandeville & Raianne Richards

Mark Mandeville and Raianne Richards are clearly inheritors of a timeless legacy, creating music that is both original and evocative of a rich tradition. Blending distinctive voices and a wide range of accompaniment (guitar, harmonica, ukulele, clarinet, penny whistle, electric bass), their songs have been well-received by audiences around the eastern United States since 2010. Transcending the genre of folk Americana, their music echoes inspiration from traditional folk duos and singer/songwriters like Ian & Sylvia, Kate Wolf and Neil Young – combining beautiful harmonies and a lyrical intensity, while establishing a unique sound of their own. Over the years, Mandeville & Richards have shared the stage with acts like Garnet Rogers, Melanie Safka, Eric Brace & Peter Cooper, John Gorka, Willie Watson, Pierce Pettis, Pokey LaFarge, Joan Osborne, Mustard's Retreat, Atwater ~ Donnelly, and while showcasing at the Philadelphia Folk Festival, appeared on stage with Tom Paxton.

Saturday - 17 - Kevin Connolly

Writing and performing for over twenty years, Kevin Connolly has carved out his own way of writing American songs and earned a reputation as a passionate performer. Connolly has toured extensively in the U.S. and Europe while maintaining a strong presence and tie to his New England roots. Working the college and coffeehouse circuit solo, Kevin has also played major festivals including Newport Folk, SXSW, Kerrville Folk and Bumber-shoot. He has opened up for a long list of notable artists including Indigo Girls, Huey Lewis, Todd Rundgren and Joan Osborne.

Saturday - 24 - Seth Glier

Despite his relatively young age, MPpress recording artist Seth Glier is a seasoned troubadour. A singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist who averages over 200 live performances annually, Seth has gone from opening act to headlining his own shows and playing major festivals. He's shared the stage with artists as diverse as James Taylor, Ani DiFranco, Edwin McCain, Emmylou Harris and Ryan Adams, and has quickly become known for his passionate live sets and powerful command of both piano and guitar. His music has also caught the ears of fans, industry and critics alike, with USA Today stating that his "exquisite tenor echoes Bruce Springsteen and Billy Joel."

Friday - 30 - Garnet Rogers

Garnet Rogers has established himself as one of the major talents of our time. Hailed by the Boston Globe as a "charismatic performer and singer," Garnet is a man with a powerful physical presence and a voice to match. His "smooth, dark baritone" - Washington Post, incredible range, and thoughtful, dramatic phrasing make his music literate, passionate, highly sensitive, and deeply purposeful. Cinematic in detail, his songs "give expression to the unspoken vocabulary of the heart" (Kitchener Waterloo Record). He sings extraordinary songs about people who are not obvious heroes and of the small victories of the everyday. Garnet moves his audience from tears to laughter and back again with his songs, humor and lightning-quick wit.

Saturday - 1 - Kala Farnham & Maria Sangiolo

Kala Farnham is a multi-instrumentalist singer-songwriter homegrown out of the Quiet Corner of Connecticut. In high school she established herself as a working musician as her alma mater's theater accompanist; in college, she furthered her studies in music technology, composition, and jazz. Since then, music has continued to be the defining factor of Kala's life. Kala is described by RI's Motif Magazine as a "pint-sized, piano-playing powerhouse... with influences of pop, Broadway, and world music".

Maria Sangiolo was awarded a 2016 Artist in Residence Fellowship at the home of Edwin Way Teale, the Teale Memorial Sanctuary, managed by Connecticut Audubon in Hampton, CT. In November, of 2017 she spent a week amidst the birds, wildflowers, trails, trees and ponds, walking, resting and writing. This experience informed a new collection of songs about Teale and his wife Nellie and some of their friends. Some of the songs were co-written with her friend, Alison Davis, a country neighbor to the Teales. She is excited to be writing for adults again, with her new-found creative space.

Friday - 7 - Open Mic

Hosts - Faith Montaperto & Peter Lehndorff -

Feature - Tom Wyatt's debut record, backed by a slew of veteran musicians, blends the humility of folk music, modern pop sensibilities, and the tragic lonesome sound of country music that has shaped American men and women for nearly a century. Between the sheer precision of his sound, and lyrical ability, Wyatt is undoubtedly an act to keep an ear out for.

Saturday - 8 - April Grant

April Grant is famed for ballads, sea music, and a broad repertoire of poems and folktales. A mainstay of singing circles in the Boston area, she has appeared at the Mystic Sea Music Festival, the Portsmouth Maritime Festival, the late, great NOMAD festival, and the New England Folk Festival. She has told her stories and sung her songs everywhere from the Fire & Water Cafe (Northampton, MA) to the Glenfarg Folk Club (Scotland) and The Story Space (Central Square, Cambridge).

Praised for her subtlety alongside her power, Krista's vocal range captures rooms of all sizes. On her debut album Hindsight, Krista sings of love, loss & lessons learned in making the always-challenging and often-indecipherable journey of leaving your 20s behind and growing as a woman. "Deeply personal lyrics, delivered with sweet, rich vocals. Her songs are poetry set to music. Listening to Krista is always moving." - Thom Kennedy of the Podunk Throwbacks Playing gigs from Vermont to NYC ... all the way to Indiana, Krista has caught the touring bug in a big way. ## Goings on ... at The Bean

Weekend Breakfast

A full breakfast menu is served Saturday and Sunday from 8:00 am - 12:00 noon. We offer a variety of specials including recent items like Wild Boar & Blue Scramble, Roasted Mushroom Omelet, and Asparagus & Smoked Salmon Benedict. We use only 100% maple syrup.

Dinner

We are open for dinner Wednesday - Sunday. Each night we run four or five dinner specials. Recent items include: Salmon Tacos, Sweep Pea & Caramelized Onion Ravioli, Seared Scallops, and Korean Pork Mac'n Cheese. We offer a truly quality dinner at a great price, in a warm and friendly atmosphere. If you haven't tried us for dinner yet, it's time you did.

The Artwork Gallery

The Café displays artwork by local artists year round. Some shows have openings and some do not. Most of the artwork displayed is for sale and often prices are listed with the piece or on a list located in the room. One hundred percent of the sale price goes to the artist.

October - Lauren Hylka

November - Tom Sayers

December - Quilts

Entertainment

The Café is on the National Folk Music Circuit and attracts talent from all over the United States while featuring mainly New England performers. The majority of the shows are on Saturday night and start at 7:30 pm. Our Open Mic night is on the first Friday of each month. During shows, a theatre curtain separates the listening room from the tiled dining room and kitchen in an effort to keep the music in and the kitchen noise out.

Our Pricing Practices*

1. Sales Tax Included - Our prices include the 6.35% Connecticut Sales Tax. The prices listed on the menu are exactly what you pay. Our prices may seem to be inflated; however, a $10.00 menu item is actually $9.40 + $.60 sales tax. Furthermore, this practice makes it easier for the customer, especially if that customer is a child who has exact change for a cookie. What you see is exactly what you pay - what could be simpler?

2. Not Market Standard Pricing - We are not trying to fool the customer into thinking that $9.95 is less expensive than $10.00. We find this type of pricing insulting to our customers. However, the reason it is used so extensively around the nation is that it works effectively. We don't like that practice, and we also like to believe that our clientele is not so easily fooled.

3. No Pennies, Dimes or Nickels - Because our prices include tax and we do not price in the standard way, we do not have to use pennies, dimes or nickels. This is a service to both the customer and to us. We don't give you lots of change, and we only have to use quarters and fifty-cent pieces. This also helps our staff to be more efficient performing transactions, which saves time and money. An added bonus is that we don't have to count change at the end of the business day.

The Café Cash Card

The first Café Cash Card was introduced in 1997. The appearance of the card has changed since then, but our card still works like the gift cards available in most stores today. Café Cash Cards can be purchased in any amount at the restaurant or online and are reloadable - add to the card balance at any time! Cards can be used to purchase any menu item at Vanilla Bean Café. Note: A bonus of 10% is added to the card balance when you purchase a card for $200 or more*. The card must be presented to redeem it at the time of purchase. The Café Cash Card makes a great gift for friends and family members and is ideal for students at the local schools. Café Cash Cards have no expiration date.
