Dog Lane Café - Celebrating 7 Years in December

This December will mark the 7th anniversary of our restaurant that is in Storrs Connecticut, right next to UCONN in Storrs Center. The restaurant has been well received from people who visit the area for work, education and business.

Our managing partner, Steve Smith, along with General Manager Tiffany Siefert and the entire management team, have done a fantastic job of hiring, training and educating our staff so that we are able to fulfill on our offer in a timely and consistent manner. Steve is also a great ambassador for the restaurant and the surrounding area.

In 2012 we set out to offer the Mansfield/Storrs area a European/American café, offering something for everyone from early morning to late at night. The menu and the daily specials emphasize seasonal, local and freshly prepared food, all made to order. You can sample from our wide variety of sandwiches, grilled items and freshly tossed salads or help yourself to coffee at our self-service coffee bar — where you get to make it the way you like it. In the past 7 years we have worked to fulfill on that offer, and we have been embraced by the community for doing so.

If you haven't taken the time to visit the area recently, you will find that it has changed a lot. Storrs Center has been fully developed with many new businesses and apartments, along with a new town square. As the saying goes at Dog Lane: Come. Sit. Stay. ☺

We Thought You Should Know

October 1st, the State of Connecticut implemented a new 1% additional Sales Tax on restaurants. That means the consumer at restaurants will be paying 7.35% sales tax. The State has also implemented a 10% Spirit Excise Tax that will be passed onto restaurants and package stores in wholesale costs. Not only that, but beginning at the same time, the state Minimum Wage increases from $10.10 per hour to $11.00 per hour. It will increase every 9 months by $1.00 until it reaches $15.00 per hour on June 1st of 2023. In 4 years, this will increase the minimum wage by 48%. This will in turn cause menu prices to increase a minimum of 25% in that time frame, but most likely more than that as the increases incurred by our suppliers are passed along to us as well. Throughout this time, we will hold true to our commitment to high quality, hand-prepared foods at all our restaurants. We will implement price increases throughout this time to keep up with this rapid rising cost of business, that is being brought to you by the State of Connecticut. ☺

October Entertainment

Friday - 4 - Open Mic

Hosts - Faith Montaperto & Peter Lehndorff -
Feature - ch'Chunk - is a band with a modern take on classic swing. They perform classics as well as originals.

Saturday - 5 - Roy Book Binder

Roy has the goods: the original, the bare-knuckle, the low-down . . . blues. Who can say they were friends with the Rev. Gary Davis, Pink Anderson and Robert Lockwood? And toured with Arthur Big Boy Crudup, Hot Tuna, JJ Cale & Bonnie Raitt? Roy can. He has the stories, the licks, and the mystery of timeless music in his fingers. He's been featured on a PBS special and interviewed by Terry Gross on "Fresh Air." He's also a regular at Fur Peace Ranch, where he teaches along with Jorma Kaukonen. When he brings his 'Tour Bus' to town, a one-man blues-fest ensues. He plays and he entertains, feeding us music and stories, and the evening is a celebration for us all. We're privileged to have Roy here to preserve—and extend—the tradition of great American blues music.

Saturday - 12 - Don White

There is no one-word description for what Don White does. He has survived and thrived for more than twenty years, bringing his audiences to laughter and tears in his live performances, studio recordings, and on the printed page. He is a storyteller-comedian-author-troubadour-folk singer-songwriter. He is a walking challenge to the phrase "file under." Best to just sort him under "Don White." Equal parts comedian, storyteller and songwriter Mr. White's performances have earned him a dedicated following for over twenty years. "White is a riot on stage, a bona fide crowd pleaser. One of the most popular acts on the circuit. He plays an audience the way Leo Kottke plays a 12-string."- The Boston Globe. "...there is an honesty and self-deprecating wit in his material that is an immediate tonic." - The Boston Herald

*"People with a sense of humor tend to be less egocentric and more realistic in their view of the world and more humble in moments of success and less defeated in times of ravail."

Friday - 18 - SING: The Quiet Corner Song Swap Saturday - 19 - Pretty Saro

Pretty Saro is a contemporary acoustic quartet hailing from Berklee College of Music in Boston. Their music draws inspiration from traditional Bluegrass, and fuses it with modern ideas drawn from each of their diverse backgrounds. They burst into the Boston bluegrass scene shaking up the definition of American roots music. Meeting every so often in a tiny, worn, and slightly smelly dorm practice room, the bluegrass quartet tinkered away, trying to find the right blend of styles they wanted to convey to the world. With past appearances at Joe Val Bluegrass Festival and The Freshgrass Festival the Saros are eager to continue creating powerful emotions and once in a lifetime experiences through musical expression.

Saturday - 26 - Grass Routes

Grass Routes is a Connecticut five-piece bluegrass band. Since 1980 they have been delighting audiences with a repertoire ranging from traditional bluegrass standards to folk and contemporary songs all performed in their own unique bluegrass style. Skillful instrumental work and strong vocals give Grass Routes their own characteristic sound. Showcasing especially tight harmonies, vocals include duets to four part harmonies. What make Grass Routes unique is that each member sings lead. With five lead vocalists, Grass Routes presents a different style and material with each vocal arrangement.

Saturday - 16 - Mark Mandeville
& Rianne Richards

Mark Mandeville and Rianne Richards are clearly inheritors of a timeless legacy, creating music that is both original and evocative of a rich tradition. Blending distinctive voices and a wide range of accompaniment (guitar, harmonica, ukulele, clarinet, penny whistle, electric bass), their songs have been well-received by audiences around the eastern United States since 2010. Transcending the genre of folk Americana, their music echoes inspiration from traditional folk duos and singer/songwriters like Ian & Sylvia, Kate Wolf and Neil Young – combining beautiful harmonies and a lyrical intensity, while establishing a unique sound of their own.

Saturday - 23 - Kerri Powers

“From extravagance to simple elegance we went, as Kerri Powers took the stage with nothing but a chair, an acoustic guitar and a tapping tambourine strapped to the toe of her boot.” Kerri Powers has been a staple of the New England music scene for more than 10 years. Powers’ supple vocals give these songs a cool caress, creating a quiet aura of authority and conviction only the most accomplished artists have the ability to attain. Powers’ own compositions are excellent as always, but the gentle touch she instills in her songs.

Saturday - 30 - Seth Glier

Despite his relatively young age, MPress recording artist Seth Glier is a seasoned troubadour. A singer-songwriter and multi-instrumentalist who averages over 200 live performances annually, Seth has gone from opening act to headlining his own shows and playing major festivals. He’s shared the stage with artists as diverse as James Taylor, Ani DiFranco, Edwin McCain, Emmylou Harris and Ryan Adams, and has quickly become known for his passionate live sets and powerful command of both piano and guitar. His music has also caught the ears of fans, industry and critics alike, with USA Today stating that his “exquisite tenor echoes Bruce Springsteen and Billy Joel.”

About... SING:

Quiet Corner Song Swap

3rd Friday of each Month @ 7:00 pm

After the death of Pete Seeger in 2014, a small group of his admirers joined together to celebrate his life with a sing-along concert at the Hampton Grange. The event was a huge success and gave birth to SING: The Quiet Corner Song Swap. There is no charge and lyrics are available for most songs. They frequently use the folk "hymnal", Rise Up Singing and its sequel, Rise Again for song lyrics. Participants are encouraged to lead their favorite songs or suggest them to the song leaders of the evening. Bring your voices, your instruments and your ears. This is specifically a night for singing, so please, no fiddle tunes or songs without a place to join in.

December Entertainment

Friday - 6 - Open Mic

Hosts - Faith Montaperto & Peter Lendhorff - Feature - Allison Rose - is a Rhode Island native singer-songwriter who is turning heads with her pure voice, heartfelt lyrics, and a solid serving of humor and sass.

Saturday - 7 - Jim Henry & Tracy Grammer

It's hard to know where to start when describing Jim Henry. He does a lot of things and he does them well. Guitarist, singer, songwriter, multi-instrumentalist, sideman, headliner, podcast host, author, producer, engineer... it's safe to say Jim Henry does it all. As a sideman, on a variety of electric or acoustic guitars, or on mandolin or dobro, Jim can render emotional sensitivity in one moment then tear into a rock or country solo with such fire it's hard to catch your breath. He is a master of adding whatever is needed at any musical moment. At center stage, whether as a solo artist or leading a band, Jim delivers his finely crafted original songs with a smooth, rich baritone voice and engaging story telling and humor.

Called "a musician and singer of dazzling versatility", Tracy Grammer is among contemporary folk music's most beloved artists. Renowned for her pure voice, deft guitar and violin work, and incantatory storytelling, Grammer is also a gifted storyteller whose incantations add a rare mixture of vulnerability, intimacy, and hard-won insight to her performances. As one fan puts it, "With Tracy, it's never just about the music; it's a soul journey." Grammer has recorded and performed with Joan Baez and Mary Chapin Carpenter, headlined several of the nation's top folk festivals, including Philadelphia Folk Festival and Falcon Ridge, and enjoyed 12 consecutive years as one of folk radio's 50 top-played artists, both solo and with the late Dave Carter.

Peter Lendhorff opens the show.

Sunday - 8 - Straight Up Jazz Trio

Sunday - 8 - Garnet Rogers

Garnet Rogers has established himself as one of the major talents of our time. Hailed by the Boston Globe as a “charismatic performer and singer,” Garnet is a man with a powerful physical presence and a voice to match. His “smooth, dark baritone” - Washington Post, incredible range, and thoughtful, dramatic phrasing make his music literate, passionate, highly sensitive, and deeply purposeful. Cinematic in detail, his songs “give expression to the unspoken vocabulary of the heart” (Kitchener Waterloo Record). He sings extraordinary songs about people who are not obvious heroes and of the small victories of the everyday. Garnet moves his audience from tears to laughter and back again with his songs, humor and lightning-quick wit.

Saturday - 14 - Emerald Rae

Emerald Rae is a fiddler and folksinger from the seaside town of Gloucester, Massachusetts. Roots Music Report hails her as “a spell-caster of no small skill... maxing out her axe’s potential in the service of her consistently compelling melodies” and recognizes her self-titled 2018 release as “one of the year’s more fetching releases”. She was chosen as a Falcon Ridge Folk Festival Emerging Artist and is quickly gaining ground as one of the top new artists to follow this year. Pairing ornamented vocals with groovy percussive fiddle, Emerald pushes the boundaries of the imagination with a refreshingly colorful palate.

Goings on ... at The Bean

Weekend Breakfast

A full breakfast menu is served Saturday and Sunday from 8:00 am - 12:00 noon. We offer a variety of specials including recent items like Wild Boar Sausage Scramble, Roasted Mushroom Omelet, and Bayou Bacon Benedict. We use only 100% local maple syrup.

Dinner

We are open for dinner Wednesday - Sunday. Each night we run four or five dinner specials. Recent items include: BBQ Chicken Flatbread, Sesame Ahi Tuna Bowl, Seared Scallops, and Korean Pork Mac'n Cheese. We offer a truly quality dinner at a great price, in a warm and friendly atmosphere. If you haven't tried us for dinner yet, it's time you did.

The Artwork Gallery

The Café displays artwork by local artists year round. Some shows have openings and some do not. Most of the artwork displayed is for sale and often prices are listed with the piece or on a list located in the room. One hundred percent of the sale price goes to the artist.

October – Lauren Hylka

November – Tom Sayers

December – Quilts

Entertainment

The Café is on the National Folk Music Circuit and attracts talent from all over the United States while featuring mainly New England performers. The majority of the shows are on Saturday night and start at 7:30 pm. Our Open Mic night is on the first Friday of each month. During shows, a theatre curtain separates the listening room from the tiled dining room and kitchen in an effort to keep the music in and the kitchen noise out.

Our Pricing Practices*

1. Sales Tax Included - Our prices include the 6.35% Connecticut Sales Tax + the 1% Restaurant Tax. The prices listed on the menu are exactly what you pay. Our prices may seem to be inflated; however, a $14.00 menu item is actually $13.04 + $.96 sales tax. Furthermore, this practice makes it easier for the customer, especially if that customer is a child who has exact change for a cookie. What you see is exactly what you pay - what could be simpler?

2. Not Market Standard Pricing - We are not trying to fool the customer into thinking that $11.95 is less expensive than $12.00. We find this type of pricing insulting to our customers. However, the reason it is used so extensively around the nation is that it works effectively. We don't like that practice, and we also like to believe that our clientele is not so easily fooled.

3. No Pennies, Dimes or Nickels - Because our prices include tax and we do not price in the standard way, we do not have to use pennies, dimes or nickels. This is a service to both the customer and to us. We don't give you lots of change, and we only have to use quarters and fifty-cent pieces. This also helps our staff to be more efficient performing transactions, which saves time and money. An added bonus is that we don't have to count change at the end of the business day.

The Café Cash Card

The first Café Cash Card was introduced in 1997. The appearance of the card has changed since then, but our card still works like the gift cards available in most stores today. Café Cash Cards can be purchased in any amount at the restaurant or online and are reloadable - add to the card balance at any time! Cards can be used to purchase any menu item at Vanilla Bean Café. Note: A bonus of 10% is added to the card balance when you purchase a card for $200 or more*. The card must be presented to redeem it at the time of purchase. The Café Cash Card makes a great gift for friends and family members and is ideal for students at the local schools. Café Cash Cards have no expiration date.
